BORN TO BE LOVED

THE STORY OF KING'S X

Style/Vision:

With unprecedented access, it achieves the most definitive, in-depth & highest quality work produced to date on King's X.

A blend of present day footage, new interviews, never before seen archival material & live as it unfolds in the studio voyeurism, the film achieves benchmark status on the study of perseverance.

Reach

Anticipation for this film is feverishly high. It benefits from a built in advantage of major performers in the world of entertainment across the globe all are anticipating in seeing it.

King's X have come to be known as every musicians' favorite band. Everyone from Pearl Jam to Iron Maiden (members of both will be featured in the film) want to see this movie. The buzz is already there & will only intensify from the film's participants whose combined social media platforms stretch into the hundred of millions.

Goal of Film:

To cement the King's X legacy & finally tell the greatest, most undocumented story in the history of Rock and Roll while exposing the music to an entire new generation & beyond.

Born To Be Loved is not only the title but our mission statement, to spread a message of inclusion that applies to everyone. What do we all have in common?

We are all BORN TO BE LOVED

Highly regarded as one of the most musically proficient & sophisticated acts in history.

The King's X story is one of triumph, tragedy & redemption as we see the lives of Doug Pinnick, Ty Tabor & Jerry Gaskill unfold in a drama of reclaiming their identity & career. An inspirational journey of overcoming overwhelming obstacles not just in music but in life."

Illuminating human truths from a personal & critical perspective as it weaves the audience through a celebration of hard work & determination. Uncompromising in it's delivery of the subjects facing such challenges as prejudice, homophobia, racism, health setbacks & mortality while still performing at the highest level of musicianship
